Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (See the instructions.)

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? ▶ See statement

All organizations must describe their exempt purpose achievements in a clear and concise manner. State the number of clients served, publications issued, etc. Discuss achievements that are not measurable. (Section 501(c)(3) and (4) organizations and 4947(a)(1) nonexempt charitable trusts must also enter the amount of grants and allocations to others.)

Our Summer Youth Leadership Academy in Fresno, Oakland, Long Beach, and San Jose and trained 48 youth leaders. Graduates received skill training in public speaking, media advocacy, community outreach, campaign development, delegation visits, and grassroots fundraising. The Advanced Academy offered in San Jose and Long Beach and trained 11 student leaders.

Form 990 p 3: Line b - Accomplishments-1

Regional college access campaigns were held in each of CFJ's four regions. Regional offices organized school-site chapters in local high schools, organized and developed skills of local high school students, organized community presentations, coordinated regional coalitions, and held events to increase awareness and support for campaigns.

Form 990 p 3: Line c - Accomplishments-1

As part of Parents and Students for Great Schools, surveyed over 1,500 students, parents and community members across California about potential solutions to the problems in public schools and published a collaborative report on our surveys, entitled "Now That We Have the Facts," in September 2007.
